

MARY MCBAIN -7-

Mary "Polly" (Brunnell) McBain, 81, of Duxbury, died May 4 at Bay Path Nursing Home after a long illness. She leaves her husband William McBain Sr.; three daughters, Mary McBain of Kingston, Christine McBain of Boston, and Jane Funderburk and her husband John of Plymouth; three sons, William McBain Jr. and his wife Kathleen of Duxbury, Arthur McBain of Boston and Richard McBain and his wife Mary of Sandwich; and six grandchildren, Elizabeth, William III, Shannon and Sean McBain, and Anne and Kathryn Funderburk.

Mrs. McBain was the daughter of the late Arthur and Viola (Daley) Brunnell. She graduated from Girls Catholic in Malden and from Emmanuel College in Boston. She lived in Winchester and Malden both before moving to Duxbury, where she was a longtime resident. For many years she owned and operated Knightsbridge Antique Shop in Duxbury. She was also a homemaker.

Mrs. McBain was a member of Holy Family Women's Club, the Garden Club & Historical Society, and Catholic Daughters. She enjoyed antiques and spending time with her family.

A funeral Mass will be held May 8 at 12 noon at Holy Family Church; she will be buried in Forest Dale Cemetery, Malden. Memorial donations may be made to Cystic Fibrosis of Massachusetts, 220 N. Main St., Natick, 01760.
